Dear Senator Feinstein,

As much as I appreciate your automated reply to my E-mail of June 25, 2013. You completely missed the mark and replied to an E-Mail I never sent or wrote in regard to VA Clinics and VA Hospitals.

This is just one more reason I feel very strongly it's time for both you and Senator Boxer to retire.

Positions in Congress are not to be career or lifetime positions, and you both show prime examples as to why.

While I do admit you have answered most E-Mails in relation to the topic being discussed, you have missed the mark so many times.

Your colleague Senator Boxer on the other hand has been using the exact same automated reply for over six years and never once has she addressed a specific topic.

What everyone in Congress and at the White all fails sorely at is recognizing the fact that you all work for WE THE PEOPLE, we do NOT work you for.

Both of you right along with Congressman Waxman have failed Veterans, all of you have failed the American People, and truly have no business in office.

Maybe now is a good time to retire, step down, resign what ever you choose to call it.

But enough is enough.

We have a President who lies, not uncommon, elected members of Congress who work on their own agenda and not at the will of the People.

I truly do look forward to your replies!

Respectfully,
