In the Court of Common Pleas of PHILADELPHIA County, Pennsylvania
DOMESTIC RELATIONS DIVISION

vs.

GORDON M. WORTHINGTON
Defendant

Plaintiff

P.

Other State ID Number:

ORDER

AND NOW, to wit, this APRIL 10, 2015 it is hereby Ordered that the defendant's financial obligation is set to a numerical value of zero effective JULY 25, 2014 because the defendant is unable to pay, has no known income or assets and there is no reasonable prospect that the defendant will be able to pay in the foreseeable future. Arrears are remitted without prejudice as of APRIL 10, 2015.

Either parent is to provide medical insurance coverage if and when available at a reasonable cost. The parent who obtains medical coverage at a reasonable cost is to enroll the child(ren) in the coverage and provide a copy of the insurance card to the Domestic Relations Section. Defendant to pay $0 per month in cash medical support.

It is further ordered that, the financial obligation is to be reviewed for further modification upon the defendant attaining employment income, or assets that are available to pay support. The defendant is ordered to immediately report to the Domestic Relations Section any changes in his/her employment, income and assets. If incarcerated, the defendant must report to the Domestic Relations Section within one week of release from incarceration for further determination of ability to pay support.

If it is determined that the defendant has committed fraud or otherwise materially misrepresented his/her income or assets, and/or if the defendant fails to comply with any provision of this order, the prior order and arrears may be reinstated.

BY THE COURT:

MARGARET THERESA MURPHY
