"Ave."

The street sign says,
But not quite that.
One long block here.
Another a mile over there.
But Brisbane
Is my Penny lane
Lodged in many a memory:
Faces of the kids
That once raced
All over the block,
The dogs,
Friendly and not,
A mix match
Of house styles,
Sharp peaked roofs,
Trees, bushes, flowers,
Sloping front lawns,
And of names
From half of Europe.
It weathered blizzards,
Wind downed trees,
An explosive house fire,
Lightning strikes.
Yet usually by day
A tranquil sunny place,
And in the deep of night
A safe quiet quarter
With Orion overhead
On guard.
