Back from the War

August 1969

Home from Nam
And got a date
Without help.
A girl I've long liked.
Hope it's fate.

Dinner and a show,
Ballet Mexico Folklorico.
But at the Hunt room
There comes the doom.

Catholic and Polish
She loves someone Jewish.
Tell somebody she must.
Only me does she trust.

Like from an opera comic
A date quite Platonic.
But wherever she may dwell,
As matters now have stood,
I wish her well and good.
