f. 25 July 1979, CDR McCallister (return call). Checked with civil engineering support office, inventory control, at Port Hueneme where master records are stored. No information kept or available on types or amounts of pesticides and herbicides supplied to or used by Seabee units in RVN.

2. LCDR Tim Dickens reported that he had no knowledge of AO or of herbiciding compounds containing Dioxin being used by Marine Corps units during his tour in RVN. He was also unaware of any records being kept on the types and amounts of pesticides applied by USMC units in RVN. I can report the same from my own personal experience in RVN.
