Rebuilding Together's Veterans Housing Program

Rebuilding Together is the nation's leading non-profit organization working to preserve affordable homeownership by providing free repair services for those with the greatest need. In 2005, Rebuilding Together decided to use its more than 20 years of home repair and modification expertise to assist the veteran community. Through corporate, foundation and individual contributions, Rebuilding Together's Veterans Housing program works to provide safe and accessible housing for active duty service members, and military families in need. The initiative serves to fill gaps in housing modifications and repair services for retired and active service members to ensure that their housing needs are met.

Since 2005, Rebuilding Together has completed more than 500 projects through its Veterans Housing program. Rebuilding Together has built a successful organization with the ability to mobilize our volunteers, develop relationships in the community and meet the needs of service recipients. Our affiliates provide services in cities and towns across the country and we are recognized as national experts in home repairs and modifications. The service is provided at no cost to qualified veterans and their families.

The Need for Veterans Housing Assistance

- More than 25 million veterans reside in the U.S.*
- More than 6.9 million veterans are disabled
- More than 4.3 million veterans have a combined family income of less than $20,000
- The largest group of U.S. veterans are now in their 50's and 60's
- More than 31,000 service members have been wounded in Iraq and Afghanistan
